PALMA ARRIVES WITH THE SNORTING RED FIAT.

Was on the Beach This Forenoon.—Oldfield Experimenting With Carburetors.

Ralph De Palma arrived in Daytona this morning, coming from New York via DeLand, where he had shipped the 200-horse power Fiat of Villa Arnold's. The Italian pilot drove the car over the road and took it to the beach immediately, driving it up and down a five-mile course several times. The car worked splendidly and the great little driver gave it plenty of oil so as to take no chances until he has an opportunity to get acquainted with the monster, this being the first time he has driven it.

Accompanying De Palma were David L. Bruce-Brown, millionaire amateur driver, who did so well with the Benz during the beach races last year, and Caleb Bragg, another millionaire amateur driver, who owns a 100-horse power Fiat racer. While Bragg will drive a Benz here during the regular speed carnival March 22 to 24, both he and Bragg are close friends of De Palma's and will act in an advisory capacity in the Fiat race after the Oldfield match. De Palma is a quiet chap, with plenty of nerve and daring and a good, game, clean driver in any contest he enters. He is very popular among his opponents.

Oldfield and his big Benz were on the beach this morning for about an hour, the track champion spending half the time experimenting with different carburetor adjustments. The Benz has a beautiful sound while exhausting and the rhythmic explosions of the motor give additional evidence of its great power and speed. Oldfield is enjoying every moment of his stay in Daytona and his house party at the Fitzgerald residence across the river has made a great hit with the many guests he has entertained. Both Oldfield and De Palma will be on the beach about low tide tomorrow, but this morning they made a strong complaint about the way pedestrians and vehicles as well as automobiles cut across the course near the water, instead of keeping towards the outside of the beach at all times.

EAST COAST WATERS TO GET ATTENTION.

EFFORTS TO CALL THE NOTICE OF THE GOVERNMENT TO EXISTING CONDITIONS HAVE FINALLY PREVAILED.

Dr. P. R. Bennett has for some months been in correspondence with Senator Taliaferro in regard to work that should be done in East Coast waters, in the proper staking of channels, etc., and the correspondence has lately borne fruit.

Yesterday Dr. Bennett received a letter from J. H. Hethrington, Commander U. S. N., retired, and Inspector of the Sixth District, stationed at Jacksonville, stating that by direction of the Light House Board, he would be here some time during the week on board the tender Water Lily to look over the situation and see what could be done and that he would like to have Dr. Bennett and others interested meet him and show him just what was wanted.

At the time the appropriation for Florida Rivers was made the East Coast was not provided for, although the Senator made an effort to have it included in the appropriations. An amendment to that effect made by him was stricken from the bill.

RUSTIC SEATS AND REST PLACES ARE SUGGESTED.

Editor Daily News: I am an ardent admirer of our beautiful Daytona, and am deeply interested in her advancement. We should all be keenly alert to make practical improvements.

My work as district superintendent necessitates a great deal of travel on the various railroads. It has been very interesting to me to hear expressions and comments by tourists concerning our various Florida resorts. The universal expression which I have heard has been, "Daytona is the most beautiful of all the places." But listen—there has also been a universal complaint about Daytona; and I believe it a just complaint. The cry is for Rustic Seats and Rest Places.

We should keep in mind that our blocks are long and our streets and avenues are broad. A great many of our tourists are aged. They enjoy our splendid sidewalks, but long for rest places.

The parkways along all our streets are admirably adapted for rustic seats. Practically every block should have these rest places. The tourists constitute part of our "stock in trade," and surely we should express our appreciation of their winter's sojourn with us by providing the aforesaid places of rest.

An hundred times have I heard thanks and appreciation for Mr. Gamble's "Rest and Be Thankful." It is needless to say that our home people would also greatly appreciate the privilege of sitting down now and then to chat with the squirrels.

Let us continue to make Daytona beautiful and in addition, Restful.
HERMAN G. PORTER.

SENATOR JOHN W. DANIEL'S CONDITION IS IMPROVED

ATTACK OF PARALYSIS BUT A LIGHT ONE AND HOPE IS ENTERTAINED OF HIS STEADY IMPROVEMENT.

Senator John W. Daniel, who was stricken with paralysis Monday, at the Palmetto Hotel, and later removed to Dr. Bohannon's Hospital is reported to be in a very promising state of recovery.

Yesterday afternoon the Senator's condition was much improved and he continues this morning to hold the gain of yesterday.

Fred Harper, Senator Daniel's son-in-law and law partner, arrived last night from Lynchburg, Va., and will remain until the Senator has sufficiently recovered to be able to make the journey to his home at Lynchburg.

The attack being so light and his improvement so reassuring, it is not thought necessary to summon other members of the family to this city.

Both Dr. Chowning and Dr. Bohannon are attending Senator Daniel and he is receiving every possible care and attention.

CONGREGATIONAL BAZAAR A GREAT SUCCESS.

The annual bazaar of the Congregational Church was held at Social Hall Tuesday afternoon, and quite a sale was made of the numerous useful and fancy articles offered. The hall was beautifully decorated in bamboo, palms and foliage plants. The flower booth was artistically placed as the center of attraction, near the center of the hall, and was much admired, although it was observed that those who stopped to admire usually passed on to the candy booth to spend their money. Ice cream, cakes, sandwiches and coffee were served, and a pleasant social time was spent by the numerous patrons who thronged the hall during the afternoon. That the ladies of the Congregational Church made a success of the bazaar and refreshment tables is quite certain, although the exact amount realized is not determined at this writing.

AN ORMOND MAN TO THE FRONT

L. H. Sawyer, one of Ormond's well known friends and patrons, is taking a prominent part in local affairs in his home city, St. Louis. As is well known that city has a Terminal Railroad Association, which takes toll of all business passing to and from that city and the East, over the Mississippi River bridge. The bridge toll on coal is estimated at twenty cents a ton. Mr. Sawyer has come out strongly against this "arbitrary" and claims that if it were abolished there would be a new St. Louis in two years. Mr. Sawyer is a director of the Brown Shoe Company; president of the Western Shoe Wholesaler's Association and a leader in a number of St. Louis enterprises. He has numerous investments in Ormond.

OUTBREAK LAST NIGHT IN PHILADELPHIA HAS ANGERED POPULACE AGAINST THE TRACTION COMPANY.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9—The police today say they will arrest all strike-breakers who last night shot into the crowd from an attacked car, wounding six. They hold the shooting to be inexcusable.

The outbreak has angered the populace against the Traction Company. The charge is being made by the strike-breakers that the police are causing all the trouble.

More rioting is feared, although a majority of the strike-breakers are trying peaceful methods.

The transit company announced today at noon that 1100 cars were running.

TRAVELOQUE AT OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

Tonight at the Daytona Opera House, Mr. Lincoln will present his second Travelogue of the series, entitled "The Canadian Rockies and the Selkirk Ranges."

The many who admired the pictures of Alaska will be glad to learn that the "Canadian Rockies" views are finer in subject and coloring, every slide depicting some spot of scenic grandeur, and including many gorgeous sky effects such as received the applause of the entire audience Monday night. The New York critics have expressed to opinion that this is his best production.

An important feature tonight will be the greatest moving picture film ever taken, and for the privilege of taking which $10,000 was paid. The Wright Bros. Airplane, Flights at the Rheems Aviation Meet, is the title of this sensational film.

Mr. Lincoln's usual price of admission is two dollars, but tonight it will be fifty cents, children thirty-five cents.

INTERNATIONAL PAPER MILLS WILL BE AFFECTED—SHEERIFF SWEARING IN DEPUTIES.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., March 9—Union leaders say the strike order issued today will affect the mills of the International Paper Company calling out 10,000 men tonight. The company says it has plenty of strike breakers ready.

The sheriff is swearing in deputies, anticipating trouble. Companies L. and K. N. G. of New York, left Saratoga today for Corinth to keep order among the strikers.

Unless conditions improve the entire Second Regiment, and possibly the Tenth, will be ordered on strike duty.

PEARY'S CLAIMS DISPUTED BY CONGRESSMAN MACON.

SAYS THE EXPLORER COULD NOT HAVE MADE THE DISTANCE CLAIMED IN THE TIME CLAIMED.

WASHINGTON, March 9—Representative Macon today presented a survey of Peary's pole discovery story to the sub-committee of the Naval Affairs Committee, branding Peary's claims false because he could not believe Peary made the distance claimed after leaving Cape Columbia.

Representative Macon said he opposed Congressional recognition of Peary's alleged achievement in the absence of proofs which the commander refused to submit.

REVOLUTIONISTS ASK FOR INTERVENTION BY AMERICA.

NICARAGUANS WANT A THIRD PERSON, NEITHER ESTRADA NOR MADRIZ, AS PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, March 9—Leaders of the revolution in Nicaragua today submitted a request to the United States through the American Consul at Bluefields for intervention, suggesting the selection of a third person, neither Estrada nor Madriz, as provisional president. They ask for an early free election and the recognition of the insurgents.

BODY OF SENATOR PLATT LAID TO REST.

OWEGO, N. Y., March 9—In the old Presbyterian Church here today simple funeral services were held over the body of former United States Senator Thomas Collier Platt. Prominent members of both parties, State and National, attended. Rev. George Young, the pastor, officiated. Rev. Cameron McKenzie, president of the Elmira Female College, assisted.

President Taft sent a wreath. The burial occurred in the cemetery outside the village in the family plot.

The exhibition game between the Daytona Basket Ball team and the girls' High School team has been postponed until Thursday evening, on account of the Army being otherwise engaged for the annual inspection of Company K this evening. The game will be called at 8:00 o'clock. It is hoped sufficient interest is taken in the success of the girls' teams to pull out a good attendance.

ADMISSION TO BE CHARGED TO RACES.

BEACH WILL BE FENCED IN THE VICINITY OF AUTOMOBILE CLUB HOUSE, WHERE ALL RACES START OR FINISH.

The ocean beach has been set aside as a race course by the county commissioners for the dates of March 15, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 and upon those dates will be under the control of the Sheriff of Volusia County and the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.

No serious accidents have ever occurred during the race meets of previous years and all possible means will be used to making the coming speed carnival as safe as those of the past.

Already Oldfield is trying the big Benz racer on the beach and crowds of interested people are thronging to the peninsula to catch a glimpse of the renowned driver and his monster car. Other racing machines will soon follow and for the protection of the drivers of these cars, and the public in general, persons should keep off the beach while the cars are being tried out from now until the close of the races. Especially should owners of dogs see that they do not have access to the beach during this time. On the days of the events dogs will be shot at once if found upon the course.

Work will commence today upon a tight wire fence to enclose all that part of the beach in the vicinity of the Automobile Club house, where the races will either start or finish and an admission fee of twenty-five cents for each day will be charged spectators.

Should there be any trouble from parties crossing this fence, arrangements will be made to charge the wire with electricity. A temporary jail will also be established inside the enclosure and anyone forcing his way in will be arrested and imprisoned.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association has leased the property lying west of the club house, on Halifax avenue, and a fee of fifty cents will be charged all automobiles and carriages parking on these grounds. Parking spaces for automobiles will also be provided on the beach at $2.00 per day, or $5.00 for all the events, and these spaces may be purchased in advance at Hankins' Drug Store, parties being entitled to the spaces selected by them, those first applying having first choice.

As usual only members of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association, their families and a limited number of guests will be allowed access to the club house. Grand stand admission will be twenty-five cents, or boxes holding six persons may be had for $3.00 per day.

Rules and general information for the benefit of the public will be issued by the Board of Directors of the Association.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snow-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your fief glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,
—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Frut.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill
that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.
The Fastest Autos and The Finest
Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuckto, and you will be "sho n."
Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade, and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in to your wallet only for coin for auto,
and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising progressive towns on the Hafax Peninsula, are geographically although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns extend the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the sarging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide-water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communication by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature, 80 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth
as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin.
For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach,
these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours
it is entirely rebuilt by the tides.
The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E.
Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated.
The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida
East Coast Automobile Association.
The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Izaak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low. A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO
Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK
A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND-ON-THE-HALIFAX

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobile, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road (passing Number Nine) and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

COTTAGES AND ROOMS TO LET—Furnished; Modern Improvements; on River Front or Side Streets. Rents Reasonable. Write to W. F. COLBY at Ormond.

DELAND, THE ATHENS OF FLORIDA

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute. From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN
Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY
The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, over which spans a bridge from the town to the peninsula opposite.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes owned and occupied by residents and winter tourists. It has several churches, one of the best graded schools in Volusia county, two general stores, a real estate agency and two or three hotels.

A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing. Port Orange is in the orange belt and a number of very fine citrus groves are nearby, where oranges, tangerines and grapefruit hang in profusion. Some of the best trucking land in the State is to be found thereabout and excellent crops are raised.

West of Port Orange a short distance are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a spot that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. At one time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast sugar-cane and indigo plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those days but has been in disuse for thirty or forty years.

A pretty automobile or carriage drive from Daytona is via the ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland. This drive affords a very pleasing variety of scenery.

Aggravating Courtesy.
 In his "Life of Gladstone" Lord Morley somewhere notes that Mr. Gladstone affirmed that he did not remember ever to have been at a loss for a word. This was an error. Mr. Gladstone was once in the midst of a tremendous denunciatory speech in the British house of commons. "The right honorable member and his satellites"—
 he thundered, glaring across at Mr.
 Disraeli. And then a sudden interruption threw him for once off his balance. Amid the tense silence Disraeli leaned forward, murmured sweetly the word "satellites," and Gladstone, bowing to the courtesy, proceeded with his denunciation.—Westminster Gazette.

Driving the Fact Home.
 There are various methods, diplomatic or brusque, of notifying an unsatisfactory employee of his dismissal.
 The pink envelope, says a writer in the Boston Record, is the recognized messenger of fate in many business offices, but there are other ways.
 The most picturesque and original of methods was that which "Uncle Jimmy" Gilbert used to use in his printing office. When a new man came Uncle Jimmy drove a nail in the wall for him to hang his hat and coat on.
 Some morning the man would come to work and find the nail driven in up to the head. He knew that he was through then.

Funny For Her.
 A New England lad was intently watching his aunt in the process of making pies and cake. He seemed very much inclined to start a conversation, an inclination, however, which the aunt in no way encouraged. She continued in silence to assemble the ingredients of a mammoth cake.
 "Tell me something funny, auntie," finally ventured the boy.
 "Don't bother me, Tommy," said the aunt. "How can I when I am making cake?"
 "Oh, you might say, 'Tommy, have a piece of the pie I've just made.' That would be funny for you."—Exchange.

Waited Twenty Years For a Solution.
 A bit of pure and harmless mischief
 at recitation at Yale was the device of a member of the class of '72, who introduced at recitation a turtle covered by a newspaper pasted on the shell.
 The tutor had too much pride to come down from his perch and solve the mystery of the newspaper movement, but twenty years after, meeting a member of the class, his first and abrupt question was, "Mr. W., what made that paper move?"

A Relief.
 "Johnny," said the boy's mother, "I hope you have been a nice, quiet boy
 at school this afternoon."
 "That's what I was," answered Johnny. "I went to sleep right after dinner, and the teacher said she'd whip any boy in the room who waked me up."—Boston Post.

Alsatian Egg Women.
 A favorite trick of Alsatian market
 women is to place six or eight adolescent eggs in a small basket and to declare that those are all the absolutely fresh ones they have. The victim buys them, thinking that if the woman were dishonest she would have offered more "fresh eggs." Afterward the market woman takes six or more out of a larger basket which is carefully covered over.
 Silence is one of the hardest arguments to refute.—Billings.

Is there among the people that have seen Daytona, that can fail to realize its stability and its future? Each year has shown repeated success to those who invest in ventures based upon the advance of this beautiful city, and Ridgewood Heights is one of those ventures where your chances for profit are far greater than your chances to lose. A number of people did not care to venture out last Thursday morning and in the afternoon it rained again therefore we decided to let those sales stand that were made and postpone until FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 9:30 a. m.

As the city expands you must expect to move a little farther out and Ridgewood Heights on account of the high elevation and desirable east frontage is going to build up rapidly and enhance in value if anything around Daytona will. Five years ago lots a half a mile or more close in, appeared in the eyes of some people "far out" and today those same lots are close in, and commanding higher prices. The same thing can probably be said of Ridgewood Heights and the chances are that it will happen in the near future, because they will be sold to the people and that's just what makes them build up and become valuable.

The Same Easy Terms

One fourth cash and balance in two years, payable quarterly with 8 per cent. interest
 on deferred payments.

The Free Lot

Will be given away on the grounds and every person present will have an equal opportunity to secure the free lot regardless whether you bid, buy or not.

Free Automobiles

Leave the business center promptly at 9:00
 a. m. Everybody invited to take the ride.
 If you desire to buy one of these lots either for a home or investment you will be planting a few dollars where they cannot do other than grow.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS
Ivy Lane Inn guests are arranging for a card party on Friday evening, which is sure to be a pleasant repetition of the informally pleasant functions for which this cheerful home hotel is noted.
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Stewart, of Newburg, N. Y., after considerable delay from sickness, arrived the latter part of the week, and joined their Newburg party at the Ivy Lane Inn, where they usually spend their winters.
Mrs. S. J. Coffin, Miss Marcella Esler and Miss Janet Ferguson, of Minneapolis, Minn., who have been spending the winter at the Hotel Ormond, are now in Daytona and will spend the remainder of the season at the Ivy Lane Inn.

Archibald Parks, a guest of The Despland, who is the gentleman in the case mentioned in Monday's Daily News, as being one of the party rescued from a treacherous undertow, while surf bathing, was sufficiently recovered Tuesday morning to take his usual ocean dip.

Arrivals at The Despland: Theo. C. Dunn and wife, East Orange, N. J.; Benj. S. Hanchett, Wm. M. Wurtzburg, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mrs. W. C. Pentlary, Cincinnati; Mrs. J. S. Van Horn, Philadelphia; Paul J. Brown, Detroit; Miss Smythe, Mrs. W. G. Smythe, Providence, R. I.; C. Rutkut and wife, W. E. Read and wife, Bayonne, N. J.

Mrs. F. E. Spencer Harvey and daughter, Miss Mary R. S. Harvey, arrived from Buffalo Monday and are guests at the Ivy Lane Inn, though for lack of room accommodations at the Inn they are now pleasantly located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Williams, on Orange avenue. They are favorites at the Inn, and people with whom it is a pleasure to meet.

Recent arrivals at the Ivy Lane Inn: Mrs. C. C. Mellor, Mrs. J. McH. Reinhart, Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. S. Stewart, Newburg, N. Y.; Mrs. J. B. Dawson, Miss C. M. Dawson, Skaneateles, N. Y.; S. G. Comstock and wife, Moorhead, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Osborn, New York; Mrs. S. J. Coffin, Miss Marcella Esler, Miss Janet Ferguson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. F. E. LOVE AND FLOWERS.
The Advice a Discerning Woman Gave Unto Her Daughter.
My daughter, wouldst thou know a man's secret? Go to the florist, then, O simple one, for in him every man reposes his confidence.
Yea, by the flowers which he sendeth a woman shall ye judge the quality of a man's love, likewise the quantity and exact stage.
As violets pass unto roses, and roses unto cheap carnations, and carnations unto naught, so passeth his grand passion from the first throes into matrimony.
Lo, at the beginning of a love affair mark with what care a man selecteth his flowers in person, that not a wilted violet shall offend thine eyes!
Yet as time passeth he telephoneth his orders and leaveth it all to the clerk. And there cometh a day when he murreth wearily, "I say, old chap, make that a standing order, will you?"
Then the florist heaveeth a sigh, for he knoweth that the end is at hand. Yea, this is the mark of an engaged man who doeth his duty. So after the wedding bouquets all orders shall cease together, and until he seeketh flowers for his wife's grave that man shall not again enter a florist's shop.
For stale carnations, bought upon the street corner and carried home in a paper bag, are a fit offering for any wife. Yet a funeral rejoiceth the florist's heart and maketh him to smile, for he knoweth that a widower's next order shall be worthy of a new cause and the game shall begin all over again.
Yertly, verily, my daughter, I charge thee, account no man in love until he hath gone forth into the gardens and the fields and plucked thee a few dinky pansies or stray weeds with his own hands.
For when a man sendeth thee violets it may mean only sentiment, and when he sendeth thee orchids it may be only a bluff, but when he doeth real work for any woman it meaneth business. Selah!—London Tit-Bits.
Caustic Conkling.
Rosecoe Conkling once considered it his duty to impeach the testimony of a red nosed witness who, Mr. Conkling thought, had lied while in the witness chair. In addressing the jury Mr. Conkling spoke of him thus: "Gentlemen, I think I can see that witness now, with mouth stretching across the wide desolation of his face, a fountain of falsehood and a sepulcher of rum."
England's Giant King.
Edward I. was six feet two inches high, and the tips of his middle fingers extended below his knees.
A French surgeon who was once attending a sultan resorted to an expedient which, although efficacious, might have resulted in his own death.
He had been commissioned to bleed the grand seignior and either through timidity or nervousness had met with an awkward accident. The point of the lancet broke off in the vein, and the blood would not flow. That point must be got out somehow. Without stopping to consider the consequences to himself, the surgeon gave his highness a violent slap in the face. This produced the desired effect, for surprise and indignation on the part of his august patient put the blood into violent circulation. The vein bled freely, and the lancet point came out.
The bystanders were about to lay hands on the surgeon when he said, "First let me finish the operation and bandage the wound." This done, he threw himself at the feet of the sultan and explained his action.
The sultan not only pardoned him, but gave him a handsome reward for keeping his wits about him in a critical moment.
A Knockout.
A young lawyer was engaged in a case when a witness was put in the box to testify to the reputation of the place in question.
This witness in answer to a query as to the reputation of the place replied, "A poor shop."
The lawyer inquired, "You say it has the reputation of being a 'poor shop'?"
"Yes, sir."
"Whom did you hear say it was a 'poor shop'?"
The witness did not recollect any one he had heard say so.
"What?" said the lawyer. "You have sworn this place has the reputation of being a poor shop and yet cannot tell of any one you have ever heard say so?"
The witness was staggered for a moment at the words of the lawyer. The lawyer was feeling triumphant when the witness gathered himself together and quietly remarked, addressing the lawyer:
"Well, you have the reputation of being a poor lawyer, but I have never heard any one say so."
Romance of an Inkstain.
Pens and furniture used in the signing of famous treaties and documents recall Archibald Forbes' experience after Sedan. After witnessing Napoleon's interview with Bismarck at a wayside cottage and his subsequent surrender Forbes and a fellow war correspondent slept at the chateau which the fallen emperor had occupied the night before. The bedroom was just as Napoleon had left it and by the bed the open book with which he had read himself to sleep. It was Lytton's "Last of the Barons." Sitting at the adjoining writing table, Forbes wrote his dispatch, while his companion gnawed at a ham bone, their sole remainder of food. Irrate at the little eating it furnished, he flung it across the room and upset the inkstand into which Forbes was dipping. When Forbes revisited the chateau a month or so later the inkstain was pointed out as caused by Napoleon's rage on learning the German terms of peace!—London Chronicle.
The Order Pleased the Cook.
The following story is told on a missionary of the China inland mission, a bachelor keeping house for himself in the southern part of China: One morning in ordering his dinner he wished to tell his cook to buy a chicken. Instead of saying "ye" for chicken he aspirated the word, saying, "Buy me a 'che.'" His cook thought that was an eminently proper command and went about his marketing in high good humor. At noon the missionary found no chicken cooked—in fact, no dinner at all, for his cook had not returned. About dark the man came back, saying: "This was not a good day for buying wives, and I have been all day looking for one, but at last I found one for you. She is rather old and not pretty, but you can have her cheap. I have promised $40 for her."
Browning.
Browning lent Lord Coleridge one of his works to read, and afterward, meeting the poet, the lord chief justice said to him: "What I could understand I heartily admired, and parts ought to be immortal. But as to much of it I really could not tell whether I admired it or not, because for the life of me I could not understand it."
Browning replied, "If a reader of your caliber understands 10 per cent of what I write I think I ought to be content."
Exchange of Courtesies.
One of the keenest of journalists and wits, Moritz Gottlieb Saphir, had the better of the irate stranger against whom he ran by accident at the corner of a street in Munich. "Beast!" cried the offended person without waiting for an apology. "Thank you," said the journalist, "and mine is Saphir."

JAPANESE ENGLISH.

A Sample Circular Composed by a Native Tradesman.

There comes from a correspondent in Japan this example of circulars in English that Japanese tradesmen sometimes compose:

"Dear Sir—I have the honour to write a letter for you that I have now established the meat market and its branch to deliver the meat as one of the branch of my slaughter house, as which I have many cattle, their pastures, their markets, milk houses, and a slaughter house, etc., and I will have a fresh meat with the most cheapest price from my slaughter house than other butchery and especially make you many reduction for every day per chaser for month. I beg you can soon make me your order without your servant's commission, as you know your servant is always making money by your meat. I will make you the pass-book for the creditor only.

"P. S.—If you banded bad meat from your servant while you are making purchases the meat from my market every day, you will soon to let it exchange by the servant without any hesitation. Please make me your order, and if you can make me order by letter I will have the postage reduction from the count of meat with kind regards. Your truly."—Boston Transcript.

The Inquisitive Antelope.

An antelope is as curious as a woman. If the hunter will lie down in the grass and wave a red handkerchief a band of antelopes will keep circling around until within reasonable distance for a safe shot. After completing a circle the antelopes halt suddenly and bring down one fore foot with a vigorous stamp on the ground, and at the same instant they make a sort of snort that sounds like a half whistle. That is the propitious moment for peppering them with rifle balls.—Exchange.

A Curious Royal Custom.

When any Spanish sovereign dies the body is at once submitted to the process of fossilization, nor can it be placed in the royal pantheon until the body has been absolutely turned into stone. Curiously enough, the period required for fossilization varies considerably. Some royal bodies have become solidified in a very short period, while others have taken years before the fossilization took place.

How Piccadilly Was Named.

It's curious how the names of towns and streets come from something that has been the fashion of the day. Who knows where the word "Piccadilly" originated from, the name of that wonderful street of which it is written that "some make love and some make poetry in Piccadilly?" The street was built by a tailor named Higgins, whose fortune was made in a kind of collar called Piccadell or Piccadill or Piccadille, which was worn by all the beaux of the day. Of course it is not meant that the street as it stands today was built by him, but he erected a few houses to which he gave the name the street now bears.—London

LAND CRABS.

Queer Creatures That Roam in Forests Far From the Sea.

One of the commonest and the largest of the Christmas island land crabs is the well known robber crab, which is found in most of the tropical islands of the Indian and Pacific oceans. It sometimes reaches a length of two feet and may measure seven inches across the back. Its colors are of a very gaudy description, the ground color being a bright red, upon which there are stripes of yellow, but in some cases a purplish blue is the prevailing tint.

The eyes are fixed on stalks which can be moved independently of one another, and there are two pairs of feelers, one long, the other short. The latter pair are continually jerked up and down. There is a pair of powerful claws, then several walking legs. In general appearance these animals are much more like rather stout lobsters than crabs, and one's first encounter with one of these creatures in the middle of a forest far from the sea is productive of much astonishment on both sides.

Another species of land crab common in Christmas island is a little bright red animal which in general shape is much like the common shore crab. This variety makes burrows in the ground, and in some places the soil is honeycombed with hundreds of holes. The crabs spend most of their time collecting dead leaves, which they carry in their claws, holding them up over their heads and drag down into their burrows, into which they scuttle at the least alarm.—Pearson's Magazine.

DR. JOHNSON.

He Never Said a Word About Taking a Walk Down Fleet Street.

The wit and wisdom of that great man Dr. Johnson were of the sledge-hammer order and invariably preceded by "sir," so that it is comparatively easy for any one who has acquired the trick to invent a retort or remark in the Johnsonian style. One of the most effective of these pseudo sayings of the doctor is, "And now, sir," said Dr. Johnson, "we will take a walk down Fleet street." There can be but little doubt that Dr. Johnson did make this remark, for he was always walking down Fleet street, but it is not recorded that he did so. The saying is due to George Augustus Sala, who when the magazine Temple Bar was being started by Mr. Maxwell imagined a quotation from Boswell as a motto for the venture. The thing was intended as a joke, but for a long while it was absolutely believed to be a quotation from Boswell, and perhaps there are still some who would say unhesitatingly that Dr. Johnson did say the words, so seemingly authentic are they. However, Sala himself always acknowledged that he invented the phrase and added that to the best of his knowledge and belief Dr. Johnson had never said a word about taking a walk down Fleet street. There are other legends about Johnson, however, which it is not so easy to kill.—London Globe.

Salt as a Medicine.

I have in the past seven or eight years found the advantage of putting a little salt in all the water I drink. I also put a little salt, with sugar and milk, in every cup of tea, coffee or cocoa I use.

I have been a resident in the tropics for over forty years and except for a sprained ankle have not had occasion to call in a doctor or to take any medicine in the last thirty years. I believe every one's health in the tropics would be very much better if he used more salt. I find the benefit of drinking a tumbler of cold water with a little salt in it every morning on rising at about 5 o'clock, before my bath or cup of cocoa, which I usually take between 5.30 and 6.

If people could be induced to try the easy and cheap method of taking a little common salt with the water they drink they would in the generality of cases find that they would seldom require other medicine.—F. N. Burn in Chambers' Journal.

Poisonous Gas Geyser.

In the midst of the great faunal wilderness near Nairobi, Africa, is a big blowhole in the earth issuing poisonous gases. Surrounding this hole for many yards are piled bones of dead animals poisoned by this gas geyser. Dogs dragged by ropes over the hole were killed in less than a minute. The gas has been found to be hydrochloric, coming from some volcanic depth. The death trap has been fenced and billed with warnings.—New York Press.

Sprinkling a Treatise.

A wooden trestle on the Klamath Lake railroad, in Oregon, is protected from fire in the dry season by a system of sprinklers which keep it continually wet. A pipe runs the entire length of the trestle between the tracks, and at short distances are holes through which the water is sprayed over the structure.—Popular Mechanics.

No Use.

"You say Jones is down and out? Why, it was only a little while ago that he told me he had the key of success."

"He did, but the poor fellow wasn't able to find the keyhole."—Exchange.

Made Her a Fright.

"Mrs. Jones has a new hat."

"Well, you look mighty pleased about it."

"You just ought to see how it looks on her."—Houston Post.

BEANS IN BOSTON.

The Millions of Quarts That Are Annually Baked and Eaten.

Boston baked beans are known around the globe. In the city of Boston alone about 32,000,000 quarts of baked beans are devoured annually, to say nothing of the pork that goes with them and the brown bread that is also served. There are factories or bakeries which handle nothing but baked beans from one year's end to the other. One of the largest of these, which supplies restaurants wholly, bakes 14,000 quarts of beans a week. Other bakeries also furnish brown bread, while nearly every bakery that makes bread, pastry and pies also bakes beans several times a week. There are bakeries with ovens that will hold 2,000 quarts each.

The preparation and baking of beans are interesting operations. In establishments where beans only are baked it is done on a huge scale. There are great kettles that hold two or three bushels of beans, and into these the beans are put to soak and parboil. Then the pots of earthenware, varying in size from one quart to two gallons, are ranged around on tables and filled from the big kettles. Every quart of beans is carefully picked over and sorted and cleaned of all dirt and dead beans before being put into the kettles. The ovens are huge brick affairs, glowing red with heat. Experts consider that beans cannot be properly cooked except in a brick oven. Some of the ovens hold 2,000 quarts each. Filled with the loaded pots, they present a sight worth beholding. So hot are the ovens that long handled flat shovels are used to push the pots in and take them out.—New York Tribune.

ASBESTUS.

There Are Many Varieties of This Peculiar, Puzzling Substance.

Of all the queer minerals which nature seems to have provided for no other purpose than that man might show his ingenuity in their use nothing compares to that mineralogical vegetable asbestos, which in its native state is both fibrous and crystalline, elastic and yet brittle, a stone which will float and which may be carded, spun and woven like flax or silk. Asbestos is mined in practically every section of the globe, and the asbestos of the various countries differs as greatly in appearance as does the foliage of the trees and plants native to each. It is alike in but one feature—that it is absolutely indestructible, no known combinations of acids even affecting the strength or appearance of its fiber and the fiercest flames leaving it unscathed. It is a nonconductor of heat and of electricity.

Some varieties of asbestos are as compact as marble and will take the highest polish; others have loose, silky fibers. "Mountain wood" is a variety presenting an irregular filamentous structure, like wood, and other varieties, taking their names from their resemblance to the various materials, are rock, cork, mountain leather, fossil paper and fossil flax.

Asbestos is really a variety of amphibole or hornblende, composed of separable filaments with silky luster. Its colors are various shades of white, gray or green, passing into brown, red or black. Although as perishable as grass, it is older than any order of animal or vegetable life on earth.

Respectfully Referred.

Chief Justice Marshall used to narrate with great glee the following correspondence on a point of honor between Governor Giles of Virginia and Patrick Henry. The governor wrote:

Sir—I understand that you have called me a bobtail politician. I wish to know if it be true and, if true, your meaning.

W. R. GILES.

Patrick Henry's reply came promptly:

Sir—I do not recollect calling you a bobtail politician at any time, but think it probable that I have. I can't say what I did mean, but if you will tell me what you think I meant I will say whether you are correct or not. Very respectfully, PATRICK HENRY.

This was leaving it to Giles with a vengeance; but, as there was no further correspondence, the governor of Virginia must have read satisfaction somewhere between the lines of Patrick Henry's brilliantly equivocal reply.

A Mean Accusation.

The plump and pretty waitress was being teased by a youthful male boarder when a sedate middle aged man entered the dining room. To him she made prompt appeal.

"Is there anything on my face?" she demanded.

"Why, yes," was the reply, after a lengthy scrutiny. "There is some cuticle on it."

"Oh, there is not!" she said in high dudgeon and flounced out of the room.—Lippincott's.

There They Were.

"I am here, gentlemen," explained the pickpocket to his fellow prisoners, "as the result of a moment of abstraction." "And I am here," said the incendiary, "because of an unfortunate habit of making light of things." "And I," said the forger, "on account of a simple desire to make a name for myself." "And I," added the burglar, "through nothing but taking advantage of an opening which offered in a large mercantile establishment in town."

Ignorance.

Elsie—They're twins, aren't they? Bob (scornfully)—Twins, you dunder! Can't you see one's a boy and one is a girl?—London Opinion.

Do not put off under false pretenses.—Homer.
